The great feature of the parade,

OPPOSING ANYBODY.

"Title conference," and William Reliev of Syracuse, who opened it, was called because of the treatment accorded to rural counties by Gov. Whitman and the consequent demand of up-State veters for a progressive Democratic candidate with an understanding of rural conditions and needs. It was not called for the purpose of advancing or opposing the standing of any one man for Gov.

Tet all the time the county chairment allowed about candidates. First on the lost was Hearst. These was not much division of sentiment about thair desire to eliminate alim, but how and then to do it was the puzzle. They willippered to each other mystations and hat if Hearst should be the candidate the Administration would take strong incasures to defeat him, just as a previous administration had done when President Rosevelt sent Films floor significant for Governor in the companies of feet alim, just as a previous administration had done when President Rosevelt sent Films floor in the property states in the companies of field.

If war and patriotism is not the Issue of the coming State campaign. Prohibition will be, because Gov. Whitman intends running on the Prohibition ticket as well as on the Republican, incidentally, Syracuse went wet by the biggest majority of any of the thirty-nine up-State cities that had local option elections last week. Twenty cities went dry and ninetsen wet. The total wet vote in them all was 15,000 more than the dry vote. This showing, the Democrats declare, has put a crimp in the Whitman Prohibition lisue, and gives them hope of winning the State on a damp but not wholly wet platform, with temperance and local option, not State wide or Federal amendment Prohibition, as the basis.
